

The Program includes

- Staff comprised of professional artists and teachers
- Development of creative talents through workshops in visual arts, drama, music, and dance/movement
- Exposure to all areas of the arts through a variety of guest artist performances and exhibits at noted museums and galleries
- Weekly culminating performances and exhibitions showcasing students' work, to which family and friends are invited
- Middle School Internships available to former students

CSA One

Students entering grade 1

will participate in an interdisciplinary arts program, developmentally appropriate to this age. Their experience will culminate in a weekly showcase celebration.

CSA Junior

Students entering grades 2 and 3

will participate in workshops in all areas of the arts. The students create and perform in an integrated arts presentation on the final day of the program each week.

Children's Studio for the Arts

Students entering grades 4, 5, and 6

will participate in workshops focused on the student's chosen area of concentration. Opportunities will be offered for writing reflection and the creation of personal portfolios. Each artistic discipline will be highlighted in our weekly showcase performance.
